Machine Works, owned by Messra. Beeson & Helmick, and the Fairmont Planing Mill of U. A. Olayton.

Messra, Beeson & Helmick have organized a joint stock company known as the Fairmont Machine Company, and have bought ground and will rebuild on a very large scale near the Baltimore & Onio railroad, about the junction of the F., M. & P. railroad. This will cive them ample facilities for shiption of the F., M. & P. railroad. This will give them ample facilities for shipping their products. Mr. Clayton has his planing mill well under way and before the opening of the spring trade that busy industry will be again in full blast. This will compare favorably with any in the State, the main building being two stories and 65 by 100 feet.

A Notable Society Event at the Senator

Kenna's residence on Capitol Hill yesterday seemed to accommodate a large date for the United States Senatorship, part of the visiting world who came in balloting for which will take place on response to Mrs. Kenna's invitation and the 20th instant. In the Senate, J. Donto meet the eldest daughter of the house, Miss Kenna. The occasion was meant for a formal debut, and the event was surrounded by the happiest auspices. The Senator's new home, into which the family only moved last spring, was planned with every regard for comfort, as well as modern elegance and taste. It opens up well, and as large as the company was yesterday no part of the floor seemed crowded. Upstairs one large room was reserved for dancing and the highly polished floor was scarcely ever unadorned by fair majdens and their partners. Mrs. Kenna received in the front drawing room, and her gown was front drawing room, and her gown was of white brocade and point lace. Mr. Westinghouse telegraphed from New York to-day that matters there are rosy. It was generally believed that there were two reasons which led the advisory committee to return the money to the subscribers. One, that the resolution under which the committee is acting entailed upon them the arrangement for the extension of all the claims of general creditors, something which for the extension of all the claims of general creditors, something which would lead to weeks of hard work, and for which the members did not have time. The other reason was that the committee could not use the money without practically assuming the direction of the business of the company, of the business of the company, which they did not care to do.
